THE WAR IN EUROPE.

FRANCE.

Arrival of Balloon News.—The Paris Troubles of Paris—Rochefort Quits the Provisional Government and Intends to Resume Editing.

London, November 8.

The latest balloon from Paris brings a number of the Figaro of the 4th inst., containing a letter from Flourens, filling two columns, and giving a description of the events of the 31st of October. The arrival of this news, however, is of little importance, as compared with that of the last election held in that city yesterday, which was more satisfactory than any held for years. In New Jersey and Delaware they are reports of disturbances, but they are unimportant. For further particulars we refer our readers to the figures now coming in by the wires.

A Change of Position.

The Parkersburg Daily Times has recast its political relations somewhat since the late election, and instead of being no longer a party paper has determined to attempt that very difficult matter of pleasing both sides. It is going to be an independent paper, which is all well enough in theory, but somewhat difficult in actual practice, in the sense of neutrality.

We are not sinners of partisan papers, such as many journals that we could name on both sides, but at the same time there are few papers in the country of such influence that do not affiliate with one or the other party in politics, however much they may at times resist party pressure or caucus dictation.

The truth is that in our country most everybody belongs to one or the other of the great parties, and they want a representative paper just as the different Churches and Church people want their own peculiar organs. In the great cities it is in the smaller cities and towns, and not near so much so in the country districts. In New York, and other cosmopolitan communities, the papers take great latitude in their criticisms and affiliations, while in the "provinces," as these papers term all outside localities, such latitude is construed into a dereliction or indifference to party interests, and as such worthy to be punished by a loss of patronage.

This state of things, however, is modifying itself, and the position of provincial political papers is higher and better than it used to be, but there still remains enough of the old feeling among the people to exercise a wide spread and constraining influence upon editors. And this is why we say that the position assumed by our contemporary at Parkersburg is much more difficult in practice than in theory. All depends on the ability and interest that he can throw into his columns to take the place of that partisan interest which attaches to and sustains the party journal. We shall, therefore, be curious to see how his experiment works in the "provincial" regions of Parkersburg. In the meantime we wish him success in so far as he may really and truly prove himself independent.

Lease of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad.

From the Cleveland Leader.
The recent leasing of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad by the Pennsylvania Central interests marks another step in the growth of a power already so absolute as to be almost a peril to the country. This step gives the Pennsylvania Central an outlet to Lake Erie, and has naturally been followed by a rise in the stock of the main line and its new branch to Cleveland. The Pennsylvania Central now has a through line to the West, and a through line to the East, and is thus in a position to control the trade of the country. It is said that Baron Harns has been arrested.

Attack on the Army of the Loire.

A dispatch from Tours, dated at 9 o'clock, this morning, says: Last night a Prussian Column, with two batteries and 1,500 cavalry, attacked the outposts of the army of the Loire at Plessy and Launay. The Prussians were repulsed, and the French lost three killed and wounded. The French lost three killed and wounded. The French lost three killed and wounded.

The Pope's Hopeful of More Congenial Surroundings.

Special to the N. Y. Herald.

GERMANY.

The French Responsible for the Fate of Paris.

Berlin, November 8.
All the Berlin newspapers, official and otherwise, throw the responsibility of the impending destruction of Paris on the French, the latter having thus far refused to recognize the plan.

Suspension of Government Order.

Berlin, November 8.
The Prussian Government which recently gave orders for the restoration of the lights and buoys at the mouth of the river Elbe, has now countermanded those orders, and the work will consequently be suspended.

These Negotiations and their Future.

London, November 8.
Private advices from Versailles confirm the account given by Bismarck of the suspension of the negotiations for an armistice. The Prussian Government, with a majority of his colleagues, favor the scheme for the election of members to the Constituent Assembly, and urged the acceptance of the armistice as negotiated by them, but Gen. Trochu dissented and carried his point.

A Gloomy Picture of the Popular Situation and Feeling in Germany.

Special to the World.
London, Nov. 8.
A number of letters from the World's correspondents received to-day from which we extract the following fearful distress and discontent which now prevails in Germany growing out of the prolongation of the war, of which the journals are not so much as to mention a word. The whole country is morbidly and materially in the most deplorable condition, and it is doubtful how long public indignation can be restrained by military discipline. Everywhere there is desolation and tens of thousands are in mourning. Prussia is yet greater in France, but she is so exhausted that she cannot conquer her. King William must go on under the same conditions as the Emperor after the battles of the 16th, 17th, and 18th of August, when he dared not return to Paris without a cheering success to efface previous solute feelings. King William needs success before he can return to Berlin, otherwise Prussia's power will collapse like the dreams of the Emperor.

From Another Correspondent.

Another correspondent writing from Perdignan on the 4th inst., says that civil war has commenced here with frightful scenes. The Colonel commanding here was assailed by a band of Reds and cut down. The Chief of the Gen. d'Armes intervened the same day. M. De Bona, Mayor, was shot to death before his own house. I never witnessed a sight so horrible. Another gentleman was pursued by the mob and killed with butcher's hammers. The National Guard are assembling to quell the mob. All the houses and shops are closed. General Barria, who commanded the army at the siege of Metz, was arrested at Gravelotte on a charge of treason against the Republic, and the mob assembled before the General's hotel crying out: "We are sovereign people, down with the servants of the Empire!" It was with great difficulty that Barria was rescued from the hands of the mob, and conveyed to St. Joseph prison. Harns, Ex-Prefect of Paris, was arrested at his villa at Nies.

The Journalist Jean Drolet De Honnais.

Published at Mont Pelier, sells a price on Bazar's and Napoleon's heads, and has opened subscriptions to pay for their assassination.

The World's correspondent telegraphs on the 4th inst., that the Bank of France had issued 25 franc notes to the amount of 3,225,000 francs since the siege. It has a reserve of 387,000 francs of 25 francs. The only requiring them to be issued. One hundred thousand francs of 25 francs new bank notes will be issued. It is able to issue daily 10,000 francs of 25 francs.

Germanization Going On.

London, November 8.
Metz has been made the Capital of the German Lorraine.

King William Holding Back on the Bombardment of Paris.

There is reason to believe that the bombardment of Paris will not begin for two weeks. King William is reluctant to give up the French city, and is giving the French every opportunity to negotiate for peace. It is said that Baron Harns has been arrested.

ELECTION NEWS.

NEW YORK.

An Unusual Interest at the Polls Yesterday.
New York, November 8—Nov. 8.
The voting in this city is proceeding quietly, and its probable the city will poll the largest vote on record. Many citizens who publicly take no part in elections, this morning are seen at the polls. A few some districts long lines were formed as early as 8 o'clock. A large vote is already in. The inspectors, marshals and police work dispassionately. Thus far no disturbance occurred.

7:30 P. M.—Returns from fifty scattering districts of the State, outside of the city of New York, show a Democratic gain of upwards of 14,000. The indications are that Hoffman will be re-elected. This far behind Hoffman.
